ATR VERDICT: The well-bred ONE WORLD looked ready for this step up in trip when second at Newmarket and, despite top weight, is fancied to register his second career victory if proving as effective on the all-weather. Fahari has shown ability in each of her four starts and could give the selection something to think about on her nursery debut. Crackovia is consistent, but she may well have to find a bit more off this opening mark if she's to win this.

Top Tip: ONE WORLD (1)

ATR VERDICT: GIANT STEPS has been knocking on the door, finishing placed in handicaps over C&D the last twice. He was given too much to do most recently when third, putting in his best work at the finish, and Josephine Gordon is taken to get it right in this classified event. He doesn't come out best at the weights, as the 50-rated Infinite Appeal lines up in receipt of 6lb from all of her rivals and is open to more improvement back up in trip. Fact Or Fable is a C&D winner and also makes some appeal.

ATR VERDICT: A fascinating contest in which most of the runners have a chance but slight preference is for GREEK FLAME, who has been narrowly beaten by the same rival on her last two starts and looks ready to double her career tally. Tamilla was impressive when landing a maiden at Ffos Las and looks the main danger. Hexameter ran a big race to finish second at Windsor and is fancied ahead of the rest on her handicap debut.

ATR VERDICT: PRENUP, a well-named daughter of Profitable out of Intimacy, appreciated the drop back to this trip and switch to all-weather when going agonisingly close at Lingfield. She's gone up a couple of pounds for that but her best two performances have come on a synthetic surface and, in terms of a breakthrough success, it looks a matter of when rather than if. Hollie Doyle takes over in the plate and she can account for Citrus Grove and Pearl Bay.

ATR VERDICT: On his second appearance since wind surgery, YAGAN is fancied to return to winning ways. It was his first run since September when finishing fourth at Wolverhampton so with that under his belt, he could take all the beating, with this longer trip also sure to suit. Tin Fandango keeps running well and should be on the premises, but the biggest danger might be Sir Joseph Swan after his recent triumph at Salisbury off a 5lb lower mark.

Top Tip: YAGAN (4)

ATR VERDICT: DARCY'S ROCK leaps off the page. Now that the penny has dropped, courtesy of two encouraging Chepstow visits which yielded a second-placed effort and a win last time, the three-year-old could have more to offer and she remains on a very workable mark of 53. Connections have found her another nice opening and she makes much more appeal than Brazen Diamond and Buachail.

ATR VERDICT: With no recent winning form to work with, this may fall the way of top-weight KATH'S TOYBOY, who was disqualified and placed second after coming home in front at Lingfield. He has won on turf and was touched off at Brighton in June off this mark, suggesting he can have a big say. Roofful could do a lot better dropping down in trip and is one to consider, along with Stella's Charlie, who might have more to come as he gains experience.

Top Tip: KATH'S TOYBOY (1)

Long Handicap: Master Sully 8 - 13, Vincenzo Coccotti 8 - 13, Kaswarah 8 - 13

ATR VERDICT: Vincenzo Coccotti is the only runner here to have won over the distance and is worthy of consideration for that reason alone, and he has every chance at these weights if he can get back to his form of yesteryear. However, POLLINATE struck at Bath last time out when keeping on well over a fraction shorter and does look the likelier winner off just 2lb higher. Amalfi Gem ran too badly to be true at Nottingham and may be better judged on her previous Bath success, which would give her every chance for a jockey among the winners recently.

Top Tip: POLLINATE (6)

Watch out for: VINCENZO COCCOTTI (8)

Long Handicap: Perfect Soldier 8 - 8, Deconso 8 - 8, Barney Too 8 - 8

ATR VERDICT: TEMPER TRAP represents a yard going great guns this year and, an impressive winner at Hamilton just nine days ago, connections appear to have found their gelding another decent opening. The quick turnaround suggests he's come out of that race in good nick, while similar sentiments apply to last week's Carlisle scorer Royal Prospect, who shoulders a 4lb penalty. Add to the mix the hat-trick seeking Eagle Eyed Freddie and this is a competitive heat.

Top Tip: TEMPER TRAP (1)

ATR VERDICT: Not For Profit has to concede weight to these rivals for his Hamilton success in June, but he does have less on his plate than when finishing down the field in the Super Sprint at Newbury a little over three weeks ago. Perhaps EXPEDITIOUS will have his measure in receipt of 12lb. She improved markedly at Salisbury recently when pushing a well-fancied Richard Hannon colt all the way to the line in maiden company. Act Of Will also makes some appeal.

ATR VERDICT: STUNT GAME brings strong maiden/novice form to the table on his nursery bow and is difficult to get away from. His latest second-placed effort at Chester was particularly eye-catching, in view of today's assignment up to 6f, because he appeared to get a little outpaced two furlongs from home over the minimum trip before staying on well to the line. A mark of 76 looks workable and he gets the nod ahead of Granny B and Lily In The Jungle.
