ATR VERDICT: MENALIPPE was a cosy winner of her penultimate start over C&D and although she comes here off a 7lb higher mark, she's clearly in a rich vein of form at present and there appears to reason to suggest why she can't go close again. That said, River Usk was having her first try at this trip when half a length behind the selection last time and is weighted to reverse those placings this time around. Love Fifteen had no chance behind runaway winner Vondelpark at Ripon last month and this sharper distance won't be an inconvenience.

ATR VERDICT: Of those who have form over hurdles, Great Heart'Jac is narrowly preferred to Rock Legend, with the latter having to concede weight to all of his rivals. The most intriguing horse in the race is COLLECTORS ITEM, who hails from the Jonjo 'Neill yard and created a good impression when last seen finishing second in a bumper at Newbury. The stoutly-bred son of Flemensfirth may prove better over further, but he makes the most appeal in this contest.

ATR VERDICT: Charlie Appleby has a formidable strike-rate with his two-year-olds this season and his well-bred Cannon Rock can't be discounted. However, POWER OF GOLD was very popular in the betting on his debut when runner-up at Ayr last month and looks sure to have learned plenty from that experience. He was just over two lengths behind Hi Royal on that occasion, having looked green, and appeared to get the hang of things late on. Any market confidence behind the Simon and Ed Crisford-trained newcomer Bolster could be significant.

ATR VERDICT: Moon King is sure to prove popular after winning at Worcester 34 days ago and a 4lb rise shouldn't prevent the Charlie Longsdon inmate from being competitive. Dalileo is an interesting raider from Ireland for the 'Shark' Hanlon yard and he's one to consider in reapplied blinkers. However, JEN'S BOY makes most appeal after winning his latest race in the stewards' room, with a 4lb rise rating fair and there could be more to come over these staying distances.

ATR VERDICT: A case can be made for several of these, but MR PROFESSOR gets a three-year-old allowance in this contest and seems fairly well treated as a result. He is rated 2lb higher than Just Fine, who drops in class following a creditable run at Doncaster last month, but the selection carries 2lb less than him and is entitled to improve on a fourth-placed run last time now stepping up in trip. Noble Mark also merits consideration up in class.

ATR VERDICT: Pens Man got no further than the first fence six days ago after being brought down, but he still remains one to be interested in after previously looking progressive. However, GLOIRE D'ATHON has more compelling claims after a rampant victory over C&D when last seen in June. A 6lb rise for that win looks workable and a bold bid looks assured with Aidan Coleman booked to ride once more. A Mere Bagatelle rates next best ahead of Eragon De Chanay.

Alcazan kept on strongly to score in a competitive handicap at Goodwood last month and is feared most ahead of the John Butler-trained Haveoneyerself.

ATR VERDICT: There could be more to come from SPARKLING DAWN, who pulled clear with her conqueror when second at Southwell in June. That was the mare's first start for the Laura Morgan yard and more improvement could be forthcoming. Samatian could prove the biggest threat after running well when last seen in April and a subsequent wind operation could unlock some potential. ATR VERDICT: In a fairly open contest, preference is for the very unexposed OASIS GIFT, who made a pleasing stable debut for Clive Cox when keeping on well to shed his maiden tag at the third time of asking at Chepstow last month. A stiffer stamina test may help him follow that up, but Angel Amadea recorded a much-improved second on her latest run and is feared, ahead of Hagia Sophia.

ATR VERDICT: It is hard to look past BELLS OF STAMFORD, who recorded his best run to date over a furlong further at Ayr in May. A drop in trip should not faze him, given he led clearly from the second-last fence during that contest, and he looks capable of giving another good account off a 4lb higher mark. A shorter test looks set to suit Miss Bamby, who weakened over 2m7f last month, while Cobbs Corner completes the shortlist.

CUBANISTA makes greater appeal, though, after being narrowly denied over C&D in early August and the gelding's subsequent effort, when finishing sixth at Yarmouth over 1m, is worth forgiving after pulling too hard. Gypsy Whisper and Liangel Hope can fight out the minor honours.

ATR VERDICT: A case can be made for several of these newcomers, but POLEMON boasts an exceptionally appealing pedigree and shades the vote in this. His dam is an unraced half-sister to the top-class sire Dansili, as well as three-time Group 1 winner Champs Elysees. The selection is also a full-brother to Weekender, who finished runner-up in two Listed contests over 1m6f, and he could give a good account on debut.
